

Relative Clauses

Introduction: Make relative clauses by combining the two sentences into one. Make a relative clause using who or that.

A: Do you know the man? B: He lives in the blue house.

A: The firefighter was friendly. B: He gave me directions.

A: The soup was too sour. B: I had it for lunch.

A: A tiger is an animal. B: It lives in India.

A: The people were playing basketball. B: I saw them at the park.

A: The subway is always crowded. B: I take it to work every day.

A: The book really helped me a lot. B: I borrowed it from you.

A: Did you like the mechanic? B: He fixed your motorcycle.

A: Where can I catch the train? B: It goes uptown.

A: I talked to the girl. B: She was sitting next to me.

A: The woman was sick. B: She had eaten a bad hamburger.

A: All of the people can come. B: I asked them to my dinner.